JORDAN SCHNITZER MUSEUM OF ART

The Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art invites submissions for the 5th annual NewArt Northwest Kids exhibition.

Teachers of public, private, and home school students in grades K–12 may submit work for consideration in this show of student art.

About the exhibition

"Each traveler becomes an added strand in the tie that binds us to the people of other lands"

— Gertrude Bass Warner, Founder of the Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art.

NewArt Northwest Kids 2012: Global Connections will be on view from February 7 to June 3, 2012.

Student artists will be honored at a reception on Saturday, April 28, 2012 at 11:00 a.m., followed by a free Family Day.

How to participate

Teachers are asked to select a limited number of student works to submit. One entry per student, please. Museum staff will select a maximum of fifty pieces for the show.

Submissions must adhere to the following guidelines:

- * Artwork must have been created within the past year.
- * Two-dimensional work only, unmatted and unframed.
- * Maximum size: 12 inches x 16 inches.
- * Submissions must include a completed entry form and be received by January 9, 2012.
- * Submitted works must be picked up from the museum in person by June 30, 2012; student artwork will not be returned by mail. Unclaimed artwork will become property of the museum.
- * Entrants will receive a free family guest pass to the Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art.
