LAST NIGHT I HAD THE STRANGEST DREAM
The Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art invites submissions for the 8th annual NewArt Northwest Kids exhibition. Teachers of public, private, and home school students in grades K–12 may submit work for consideration in this show of student art.

About the exhibition
This year’s theme, “Last Night I Had the Strangest Dream,” explores students’ visual depictions and definitions of dreams—fantastical dreams, real dreams, or hopes for the future. Students will explore the idea of imaginary worlds through visual art such as paintings, photographs, print, digital art, creative writing, illustration, and collage. The theme can be connected to such common core subject areas as history, social studies, science, technical subjects, and language arts. See http://jsma.uoregon.edu/nank for more activity ideas responding to the theme.

The exhibition will be on view from February 17–May 19, 2015. Student artists will be honored at an exhibition reception.

How to participate
Teachers are asked to select a limited number of student works to submit – one entry per student, please. Museum staff will select a maximum of fifty pieces for the show.

Submissions must adhere to the following guidelines:
• Artwork must have been created within the past year.
• Two-dimensional work only, unmatted and unframed; no perishable media accepted.
• Maximum size: 12 x 16 inches.
• Submissions must include a completed entry form and be received by January 23, 2015.
• Submitted works must be picked up from the museum in person by May 26, 2015; student artwork will not be returned by mail. Unclaimed artwork will become the property of the museum.

The Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art reserves the right to reproduce, publish, and exhibit any selected entry.

Information: Contact Arthurina Fears, Museum Educator, at 541.346.6443 or afears@uoregon.edu.

NewArt Northwest Kids is made possible through support from the Cheryl and Allyn Ford Educational Outreach Endowment and Dr. Michael Balm and Dee Carlson.

Entry form
A fully completed form must be attached to submitted artwork. Artwork will be automatically disqualified if form is not fully completed. May be photocopied.

Must be received by Friday, January 23, 2015.

Artist’s name ________________________________________________________________
Title of Artwork ______________________________________________________________
Medium of Artwork ___________________________________________________________

Answer the following: What do you want viewers to know about your piece?
How does your artwork depict your dreams or hopes? Describe the world you depicted here.
What words best describe your work of art (and why)?
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

School ___________________________________________ Grade _________
School address _______________________________________________
Principal _______________________________________________________
Teacher _______________________________________________________
Teacher’s email ________________________________________________
Teacher’s phone _______________________________________________
Student’s contact address _________________________________________
Student’s contact phone _________________________________________
Parent/guardian’s email _________________________________________

Deliver in person to the museum or mail to:
Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art
1223 University of Oregon
Eugene, OR 97403
Attn: NewArt Northwest Kids

EO/AA/ADA institution committed to cultural diversity